

MEXICO

Civic Education in the First Half of the XX Century: Analysis of Three Books

The author analyses three books published during the first half of the XX century to compare and contrast the different approaches of civic education in the country during this time. He finds similarities and differences between the three books derived from the relationship that each text had with the life during the years they were published and with the different laws in force during those years.