

Gema Nayeli Morales Martínez was designated Counselor at the Electoral Institute of the State of Querétaro in 2014, where she presides the Commission of Civic Education and Citizen Participation as well as the Commission of International Affairs. She has a Master's degree in Applied Public Administration from the Monterrey Institute of Technology and Higher Education and a Bachelor's degree with honors in Marketing by the same university. She has been a speaker and moderator at different forums in Mexico and other countries in the Americas and Europe about democracy and elections. She is coordinator of the book Mechanisms of Citizen Participation: A Global Experience (in Spanish; 2017), co-author of Critical Visions of Democracy (in Spanish; 2016) and The Electoral Process 2014-2015, A local point of view (in Spanish; 2016). She has also been electoral observer in Mexico, the Dominican Republic and the United States.