

Josephine Nkrumah is the chairperson of the National Commission for Civic Education in Ghana. She has more than 20 years of experience as a legal consultant in both the private and public sector. She was in the Advisory Board of the Ministry of Transport from 2014 to 2017 and is the Founding Director of Lumens Veritas Law firm in Accra. Ms. Nkrumah was the Executive Secretary at the Ghana Association of Stevedoring Companies from 2003 to 2012. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Law and French from the University of Ghana, she is Barrister at Law from the Ghana School of Law and holds an LL. M. from the IMO International Maritime Law Institute in Msida, Malta.