

Luis Octavio Vado Grajales, LL.M., has a Master's degree in Constitutional Law and Legal Protection, and is a doctoral candidate of Law. He is the former president of the Constitutional Law Academy of the Faculty of Law of the Queretaro's Autonomous University, where he also teaches in bachelor and postgraduate levels. He is also a Professor at the Judicial Specialization Institute of the Supreme Court of Justice of Queretaro. He has given conferences at the national level and has authored and coauthored books in electoral and judicial matters. Since September 30, 2014, he has been Electoral Counselor at the Electoral Institute of the State of Queretaro.